A Complete Solution.

For over 30 years, medical apparel has been our core business. Whether creating our own scrub collections or retailing others, we obsess over the details. From product design and planning to program execution, we strive to exceed our business partners' expectations.

- Vertically integrated, we control our exclusive-label supply chain, so we can produce and ship when you need it while ensuring consistent quality and value oriented pricing.
- We have high volume long-term relationships with major uniform manufacturers, resulting in highly competitive pricing.
- Unique product assortment with collections that perform, from extended sizes to progressive styles, colors and fabrics.
- We are experienced, organized and agile. Our capabilities are scalable across multiple regions and patient care environments.
- We embrace your organization's key values and align with every aspect of your business objectives.
